

You may take any courses on ChiroCredit.com/OnlineCE.com containing the following subject material, (online or teleseminars) for Chiropractic CE Credit in Washington

(2) The commission approves the following subject material for continuing chiropractic education credit:

- (a) Diagnosis and treatment of the spine or immediate articulations within the scope of practice;
- (b) X-ray/diagnostic imaging;
- (c) Adjustive technique;
- (d) Detection of a subluxation;
- (e) Physical examination;
- (f) Hygiene;
- (g) Symptomatology;
- (h) Neurology;
- (i) Pathology;
- (j) Orthopedics;
- (k) Patient/case management;
- (l) Impairment within the scope of practice;
- (m) CPR;
- (n) Dietary and nutrition advice; and
- (o) Chiropractic philosophy and business management (not to exceed a total of eight hours).

(3) Subject matter not approved for continuing education credit:

- (a) Subject matter not directly relating to the chiropractic clinical scope of practice; and
- (b) Conduct prohibited by Washington state statutes or rules governing chiropractic practice.